

Spanish Courses in Manuel Antonio, Costa Rica

Manuel Antonio National Park has some of the best beaches on Costa Rica's coastline for swimming and snorkelling. It is also wonderful for short walks or full-day hikes.

The school is located on a hill with astonishing views overlooking the Pacific Ocean, just 2 miles from the beach. It offers high-quality, personalised courses all year round.

School Facts

School: COSI - Costa Rica Spanish Institute

Established in: 2000

Location: Near Quepos

Age group: 17+

Course levels: All levels

Students per class: Max. 8

Facilities: Terrace, student lounge, computer room

Activities: Salsa lesson, cooking class, international student party, National Park guided tour, water rafting, bike tour, etc

Quality certified by: AATSP

Courses

General Courses:

Mini group: 20 lessons/week

Group + Private: 30 lessons/week

One to one group

Specialised Courses:

Business Spanish

Medical Spanish

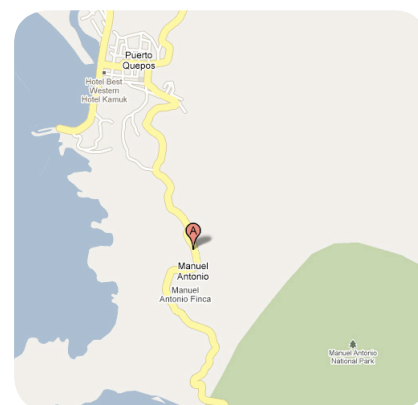

Accommodation

Homestay: single room, half board

Hotels: On request

Location

10 reasons to choose this school

- Beautiful white sandy beaches
- Over 350 species of birds and animals
- Rain forest behind the beach
- Quiet and small village
- Excellent facilities with terrace
- Small classes, max 8 students
- School original materials included
- Airport pick-up included
- Variety of nature activities
- Paradise for nature lovers

Contact us

Tel
+34 93 530 6159

Opening hours

9am - 6pm

Website

www.lsw-languages.com